

Dear CCWA Member,

I apologize for the lateness of our monthly events; my dog Maynard has been very sick and passed away last week. Hopefully you caught some of earlier March events through the Winter Freshet and Facebook postings. I am glad for the new beginnings of Spring and to see more of our wonderful volunteers at the CCWA April 27th Tree Planting at Ridley Park with East Pennsboro Township - ATTACHED is the Flier so please Register!

Below are the CCWA March Events and Partner Activities:

March 15th - Climate Disruption and Sustainable Development Speaker Series: Legal Pathways to Zero Greenhouse Gas Emissions – John Dernbach, Commonwealth Professor of Environmental Law and Sustainability and Director. Registration is requested for the 11:30AM-1:00PM session. For more information please visit <http://harrisburgu.edu/e3-climate-change-speakers/>

March 16th - South Mountain Partnership Speaker Series: "Creating the Appalachian Trail in the South" Location: Pine Grove Furnace Ironmasters House at 3 PM. For more information please contact Kate Hess at khess@appalachiantrail.org or call 717.258-5771 or visit <https://southmountainpartnership.org/speakers-series/schedule>

March 17th Kids Discover Signs of Spring at Wildwood Nature Center. With the arrival of spring comes many interesting weather patterns and changes. Animals and plants begin to awaken from their winter slumber in new and exciting ways. We will learn about these changes, make a craft, and then go on a walk around the Nature Center to look for signs and patterns. Ages 5 to 10 and their parents and a $5 fee for each child (parents free). Program is from 1:30pm – 3:00pm. Register at <https://dauphincountyparksandrecreation.ticketleap.com/kids-discover-signs-of-spring/> For more information visit <https://www.wildwoodlake.org/events/>

March 19th Gardening With Nature Series: Pruning Essentials

Pat Welfley, Penn State Master Gardener answers questions about pruning are among those most frequently asked of Master Gardeners. Learn HOW and WHEN to prune woody ornamental, including both evergreen and deciduous flowering trees and shrubs. A hands-on demonstration will be included. Bring your pruning questions, photos, and samples. Location is the Frederickson Library, 100 N. 19th Street Camp Hill, PA 17011. Workshops are $5.00 Register at <https://extension.psu.edu/gardening-with-nature-pruning> or call 1-877-345-0691. ATTACHED is the Cumberland County Master Gardener Yearly Schedule of Events that include the Adams Ricci Butterfly Garden Events!

March 23rd - Kings Gap Park Family Discovery: Exploring the Senses program. Our senses are very important to how we interact with the world from 1:00 PM to 3:30 PM at the Mansion Porch. This program is designed for children aged 4-7 with parents. Free event and for more information and other events visit <http://www.friendsofkinggap.org/home/events>

March 27th - Bird Walk: Waterfowl and Early Migrants Walk with volunteers Rick and Peg Price. Expect good diversity of waterfowl and some early songbird migrants. Meet at the South

Parking Lot at the entrance to the Towpath Trail for this early migration from 8:00am-10:00am, Free event and for more information and other events please visit <https://www.wildwoodlake.org/events/>