

Attached is the list of CCWA 2019 events. Please remember some of these events are weather dependent and you will updated if they are postponed or cancelled. The Conodoguinet Creek Snapshot is March 2nd ~ see details below! Also attached are the Alliance for Aquatic Resource Monitoring (ALLARM) local events.

Below are the CCWA February Events and Partner Activities:

2/5 - Health of Pennsylvania Streams "PA's Connection to the Chesapeake Bay" course from 2:30pm - 3:45pm. ALLARM and Bosler Memorial Library are partnering to conduct a series for the Institute for Lifelong Learning series. This is a free event located at the Bosler Library in Meeting Room B. Register by contacting the Library at 717-243-4642 x2237. For more information on course topic email allarm@dickinson.edu

2/8: Harrisburg University's Climate Disruption and Sustainable Development Speaker Series 11:30 am.-1 p.m., 14th Floor Auditorium "Is 100% Renewable Energy the Answer to Climate Change?" Karl Hausker, Ph.D., Senior Fellow, World Resources Institute This briefing will explore how assumptions regarding the availability, performance, and integration of various energy technologies drive the climate and economic implications of contrasting pathways to the "deep decarbonization" of the U.S. economy. Registration is requested at <http://harrisburgu.edu/e3-climate-change-speakers/>

2/12 - 7 PM to 8:30 PM Winter Lecture Series. "The World is Our Classroom by Cindy Ross" Cindy Ross's story begins in the Rocky Mountain wilderness on a unique and extraordinary journey. Cindy aims to empower parents to believe they can be their children's best and most important educators. This is a FREE event. For more information and other events please visit <https://www.wildwoodlake.org/events/>

2/12 - Health of Pennsylvania Streams "Stormwater" course from 2:30pm - 3:45pm. ALLARM and Bosler Memorial Library are partnering to conduct a series for the Institute for Lifelong Learning series. This is a free event located at the Bosler Library in Meeting Room B. Register by contacting the Library at 717-243-4642 x2237. For more information on course topic email allarm@dickinson.edu

2/19 - 7 PM to 8:30 PM Winter Lecture Series (Rescheduled). The Role of Nesting Ecology in the Conservation of the Common Snapping Turtle at Wildwood Park by Dr. Walter Meshaka, Jr. Senior Curator of Zoology and Botany at the State Museum of PA. He will discuss the role that basic field ecology has played in the conservation of the Common Snapping Turtle (Chelydra serpentina serpentina) at Wildwood Park, how this work can serve as a template for other turtle species at Wildwood and elsewhere, and how public involvement brings about public awareness. This is a FREE event. For more information and other events please visit <https://www.wildwoodlake.org/events/>

2/19 - Health of Pennsylvania Streams "Acid Rain" course from 2:30pm - 3:45pm. ALLARM and Bosler Memorial Library are partnering to conduct a series for the Institute for Lifelong Learning series. This is a free event located at the Bosler Library in

Meeting Room B. Register by contacting the Library at 717-243-4642 x2237. For more information on course topic email allarm@dickinson.edu

2/19 - 2/20 - Interpret and visualize your data for better communication workshop. The event is hosted by ALLARM at Dickinson College. For more information and to register please <https://sites.google.com/umces.edu/datainterpretation/home> For more information on workshop please email allarm@dickinson.edu

2/20 - 12:00 PM - 1:15 PM Land Use Webinar Series hosted by PennState Extension. Topic: Geodesign: Using Data Transparency and Community Voices for Enhanced Land-Use Planning. The webinar will provide an overview of the zoning and land development process. There are costs associated with the webinars. For more details and to register please visit <https://extension.psu.edu/land-use-webinar>

2/24 - Mammals of Pennsylvania: Family Discovery program from 1:00 p.m. to 2:30 p.m. to learn about the mammals that call our state home. For more information please visit <http://friendsofkinggap.org/home/events>

2/26 - Deadline to sign up for the March 2nd Conodoguinet Creek Snapshot Volunteer to learn about Nonpoint Source Pollution by taking water samples and analyzing the results through a series of ne-day events! Water quality data will include: pH, Conductivity, Temperature, Nitrogen and Phosphorus rates. Sign up for a sample site location at: bit.ly/WatershedSnapshot at least one week in advance. You will be provided with a sampling kit and information about your site. Bring your sample to ALLARM at Dickinson College in Carlisle, or a designated drop off site, to analyze the sample. All events will be from 9:00 a.m. to 12:00 p.m. For more information, please contact Lori Glace at lglace@ccpa.net or \(717\) 240-5358240-5358).

2/26 - 7 PM to 8:30 PM Winter Lecture Series Wellness in Your Woods by Suzann Schiemer Explore the many wellness benefits available to you by spending time in a natural environment. This is a FREE event. For more information and other events please visit <https://www.wildwoodlake.org/events/>

2/26 -Health of Pennsylvania Streams "Streams 101" course from 2:30pm - 3:45pm. ALLARM and Bosler Memorial Library are partnering to conduct a series for the Institute for Lifelong Learning series. This is a free event located at the Bosler Library in Meeting Room B. Register by contacting the Library at 717-243-4642 x2237. For more information on course topic email allarm@dickinson.edu